
Hier Komt Kunst

Photos: 'Hier Komt Kunst', with kids' chalk writing upon the writing on the wall.
